THE BIG FOUR WINS

Judge Koons Gives It Right of Way Across L. E. & W. Tracks.

End of a Fight in the Muncie Court-The C., H. & D. to Become One of the Great Railway Systems.

A dispatch last night from Muncie says: The Muncie Belt Railroad Company, practically a part of the Big Four company, today won an important suit from the Lake Erie & Western company. The trouble has been in the Circuit Court in several different forms, and has attracted much attention. The Lake Erie people have a belt switch about two miles long touching the big iron and glass industries on the south side in such manner as to shut out competition offered by the Big Four. A new company, composed of some Big Four officials and some of the manufacturers, was organized, and built a belt road parallel with the L. E. & W., but found it impossible to get to the factories because the Lake Erie people refused to let them cross their track. The factories are situated nearly two miles from the Big Four track, and for a time the L. E. & W. refused to receive material from or deliver the products of the factories to the Big Four for shipment until so ordered by Judge Baker, of the United States Court, in the case at Indianapolis. They have since then charged a handsome revenue for handling the Big Four cars, thus forcing the manufacturers to ship via their line. To-day Judge Koons gave the Muncie Belt company the right of way to make seven crossings on the Lake Erie & Western belt, and he appointed T. H. Kirby, James Boyce and J. H. Smith, disinterested citizens, to appraise benefits and damages caused by the crossings.

A Road with a Future. Until H. S. Ives secured temporary control of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton it was looked upon as the Boston & Albany road of the West, being a big and sure dividend payer, and the present management is fast bringing the property back into its former creditable position, so much so that Eastern financial papers are commenting favorably on its future. One of these papers says: "Since the practical absorption of the Erlanger roads the Cincinnati, Hamfilton & Dayton railroad has been brought more prominently into public notice than ever as one of the great railway systems of the country. With its new connections it reaches from the great lakes to the gulf and touches all the great business centers of the Central States, from Chicago and Cleveland on the north to New Orleans and Shreveport on the south. It traverses a rich and fertile section of the country, and one whose best development, especially in the southern part, is yet to come. The C., H. & D. is prosperous beyond the majority of its rivals already, but when this development of the Mississippi valley comes—as it is sure to come in the immediate future—the earning power of the system will increase in a manner which will make it one of the most valuable properties in the country.'

ast-Bound Shipments. CHICAGO, May 7 .- East-bound shipments from Chicago during the last week amounted to 55,779 tons, against 57,289 for the preceding week, and 52,536 for the corresponding week of last year. Mr. Boyd is in New York several times every month, and for several months past has confined his visits so strictly to business that his absence from social and other gatherings is regretted.

NEW SMALLPOX RULES

State Health Board Decides Upon Stringent Measures.

Local Boards Given Authority to Compel Vaccination-The Conference to Be Held at Chicago.

The State Board of Health held a meeting here yesterday at which the following additional rules relative to the prevention of the spread of smallpox were

"Rule 10. No person will be allowed to leave any house, building or premises infected with smallpox unless he has heretofore had the disease, and not then until he has disinfected his person, changed his clothing, disinfecting those cast off, and otherwise complied with the rules governing such cases. He must also have a written permit signed by the local health officer.

"Rule 11. In all cases where an exposure to smallpox is threatened it shall be the duty of the board of health within whose jurisdiction such exposure shall have occurred, or danger of such an epidemic ensuing, to compel a vaccination or revaccina-tion of all exposed persons and quarantine all such persons for the space of fourteen days. It is the imperative duty of the local health officer in whose jurisdiction such outbreak may occur to immediately proceed to the enforcement of this rule, in case of refusal on his part to comply therewith or in cases of his negligence to use diligence in cases of his negligence to use diligence in compliance therewith the secretary of the State Board of Health or a physician deputized by him shall immediately assume charge and enforce the foregoing. The acts of the secretary or his deputy to be subject to the approval of the State Board of Health. All vaccinations must be made with nonhumanized virus. The only exception to this rule that is recognized by this tion to this rule that is recognized by this oard is in the event that si alent in epidemic form and the health officer shall certify to the impossibility of obtaining such virus in sufficient quantity. and also as to the purity of the humanized virus to be used in lieu of the bovine virus." The board addressed a communication to Governor Matthews on the subject of smallpox precautions, but the contents of this letter will not be made public until the Governor's return to-morrow. There is to be a meeting at Chicago in a short time of representatives of the health boards of the several State contiguous to that city, namely, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, to make an attempt to solve this trying problem of how to fight the spread of smallpox. Secretary Probst, of the Ohlo board, is the leading spirit in the proposed meeting, which is not being encouraged to any extent by the Chicago health authorities. There were twice as many cases of smallpox in that city last month as in any preceding month, and the situation grows worse instead of

MR. GRUELLE'S PAINTINGS.

An Exhibition of His Water Colors Thrown Open.

Mr. R. B. Gruelle, who is considered one of the best water colorists in the State, and whose work has received commendations from competent critics abroad, has an exhibit of his pictures at Lieber's this week. They were opened yesterday. Mr. Gruelle paints from nature and it speaks in every line. There are none of the impressionist lines, which have to be viewed from certain positions. Each picture is a bit of nature. Among those which Mr. Gruelle has to show are some scenes which he copied near Washington last year. Irjects, and even places nearer home have been found to contain bits worth securing. Mr. Gruelle is particularly effective in misty atmosphere, and he has an example of this in "A Dewy Morning." "In Old Virginia" has something more than land-scape, and "Over the Hills and Far Away" and "Summer Hills and Clouds" are full of light, shade and color which make the artist's pictures so desirable.

A Revival After Election.

At the ministers' union meeting, yesterday morning, it was decided to recommend a general evangelical meeting to be held here immediately after the November election and continue at least four weeks The churches will be asked to pledge a guarantee fund of $1,500. HE WANTS RECEIVERS

Green-e Smith Preparing for a Decision in the Tax Cases.

He Does Not Want the Counties to Swoop Down on the Corporations-Eight Suits.

Attorney-general Smith walked down to the courthouse yesterday morning encumbered with eight suits against as many corporations, which he proceeded to file in the Circuit Court. The complaints pray for the appointment of a receiver and for the recovery of delinquent taxes due the State of Indiana from the following corporations: Adams, United States and American express companies, Pullman and Wagner palace-car companies, Western Union Telegraph Company, Central Union Telephone Company and Postal Telegraph Cable Com-

The complaints aver that for a long time prior to April 1, 1892, the defendants, in their several capacities, occupied certain Indiana counties; that on and subsequent to April 1, 1894, proceedings were had before the State Board of Tax Commissioners, by which there was assessed against the defendants for the year 1893 taxes in the several counties for the following amounts, including costs of collection;

American Express Company, $15,000; Postal Telegraph Company, $5,000; Adams Express Company, $20,000; Western Union Telegraph Company, $75,000; United States Express Company, $8,000; Pullman Palace-car Company, $15,000; Central Union Telephone Company, $20,000; Wagner Palace-car Company, $8,000. It is shown by the plaintiff that the defendants, wholly unmindful of their duties, failed and refused to pay to the treasurers failed and refused to pay to the treasurers of their respective counties the taxes so levied, and also refused to pay the first installment thereof as by the statutes in such cases made, and provided they were at liberty to do so, and by reason whereof the whole of said taxes so leviel became delinquent and the penalty of 10 per cent. became due and was attached. It is further averred that, although the defendants own and control within the State of Indiown and control within the State of Indiana a large amount of property, real and personal, and are abundantly solvent and able to pay the said taxes, yet the proper business, assets and income are of such a quasi public character that the public interests may be jeopardized and interfered with in the event that the property owned and operated by it should be levied upon, either by a sheriff or by the county treasurers; that it has therefore become and is necessary that a receiver be ap-pointed for each of the defendants property upon the final hearing of the cause The plaintiff prays judgment against the defendants for sums aggregating $166,000 and for the appointment of receivers to take possession of the several properties of the defendants and to carry on the business under the direction of the court, applying the income and receipts arising to the payment of the operating expenses and of the amount so due on account of said taxes and the penalties thereon until the same shall have been fully paid and discharged.

JUDGE WINTERS REVERSED. General Term Superior Court Gives

William Adair a Verdiet. The Superior Court, in general term yesterday, reversed the ruling of Judge Winters in the case of William Adair against the Big Four railway. Adair brought suit for $10,000 against the company for the death of his little son, which was caused by a Bee-line engine near Brightwood. The defendant demurred to The complaint, alleging that it did not show the road to have been negligent. The objection was sustained. The defendant then admitted that if there was liability on the part of the road the record might show a verdict of $2,000 for the defendant. Such a verdict was returned by the jury. The plaintiff will be entitled to the damages if the Supreme Court sustains the decision of the general term.

Ex-Councilman McGuffin's Woes. John B. McGuffin, formerly Democratic councilman from the Fourth ward, yesterday filed suit for divorce from his wife, Amanda, alleging a long array of cruelties. He says she has taken poison nearly a dozen times with suicidal intent; that she once compelled him to stay at home by threatening him with a revolver; that he left her in the latter part of April and, on May 3, she came to the factory where he works and because he would not go home with her threw herself on the railroad track to commit suicide, and that she stones the neighbors' houses causing him to pay fines for her, besides having a most unruly tongue. She accuses him of improper conduct and says she will not reform her tongue. He Plastered the Surgical Institute. Cornelius W. Sullivan, a contracting plasterer, began an action against Dr. H. R. Allen yesterday to foreclose mechanic's lies on both the new and old surgical institutes. The plaintiff complains that he contracted to plaster the new building, and completed the work to the satisfaction of the defendant, but that the later owes him $725 on he job. He also claims to have done work on the old institute amounting to $100, which sum he has also failed to receive. The court is asked to order a sale of the property to satisfy both accounts. Harriet E. Allen is made defendant to the sult.

Why the Police Docket Was Heavy. Manuel Craig, James Smith and Merrit Cates yesterday waived examination before Judge Stubbs on charges of housebreaking and burglary, and were held to the action of the grand jury in the sums of $200, $1,-000 and $500, respectively. The Police Court docket was unusually heavy yesterday morning, caused by the rare combination of Sunday, circus day and pension day all coming after the last session of the court.

He Only Had the Crusts. Alexander E. Thompson yesterday began divorce proceedings against his wife, Hattie Thompson. He alleges abandonment and inhuman treatment, and says that for an extended period he was compelled to live upon bread crusts, while the plaintiff and his step-son dined sumptuously upon purchases made with a sum of money purloined from his pockets. He further charges that his wife sold all of his furniture and pocketed the proceeds.

Peter Gramling's Will.

The last will and testament of Peter Gramling was admitted to probate yesterday. Caroline Gramling is made the sole legatee to the real and personal property of her husband and is nominated executrix of the estate without bond.
